A CASE OF POETIC JUSTICE

Hotel Blown Up-The Dynamiter Himself The Only Victim-Marvellous Escape of the Proprietor of the Golden Engle, on the Corner of New Jersey Av. nue and DStreet, Washington, D. C., his Family and Gu- str.

"ashington, September 25.-The or Eagle Hotel, on the corner o New Jersey avenue and D. street, was dynamited this morning at 430 o'cluck by Frank McKie, one of the suicide. Between twenty and thirty guests, were thrown from their beds by the explosion, but only the proprietor, Louis Brandt, and his wife were injured. The roof of the building was blown off and the falling wreckage crashed through to the basement, leaving the structure as if wrecked by a tornado. Every pane of glass in the building and the adjoining structures was broken. The explosion called out the fire depart-

The affair is involved in some mystery. The proprietor gave a banquet last night in honor of his wife, who had just returned from Germany, and McKie was a guest.

McKie boarded at the hotel for four years and had been treated as a member of the Brand family, which includes a daughter, Sophie, with whom McKie is said to have been in love. Brandt denies that there was any understanding between the two. McKie remarked last night that he was going to wait until Sophie re turned from Germany with her mother, and then he was going to his old home in Philadelphia. Mrs. Brandt and her daughter returned about 8 o'clock last night. The attempt at wholesale murder followed this morning. McKie with a pistol in his hand was seen by an employee both. of a lunch room opposite the hotel just before the shots were fired. When the explosion occurred a slight blaze sprang from the debris, but it was quickly extinguished by the fire department. Brandt and his wife were quickly rescued before many of the thirty guests of the establishment had reached the part of the building in which McKie's room was located. McKie, with revolver in floor with his head in a pool of blood. A bullet hole near the right ear had ed instant death. Brandt was o ned about the body and shaken to hadly and received a severe cut on the leg. Mrs Brandt sustained bruises about the body and a cut h. .. When the wrecked building was searched today enough dynamite was found in McKie's trunk to wreck a lock of buildings. There were six whole sticks and part of two or tiree broken sticks, together with a box of caps and a quantity of wire for long distance explosion. He had in his possession.

He was formerly of Philadelphia and had relatives in Chicago. His brother, Harry McKie, was killed in Chicago last year, according to a telegram found in the dead man's yoom today. McKie was a machinist in the navy yard here, but resigned on inheriting upwards of $20,000 about four years ago. This amount he is said to have lost on the races and his act is accredited by some to this loss. Detectives are in vestigating the case today.

In a Position to Dietate Prices-The Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company Has Ample Funds to Increase its Business and Absolutely Dominate the Market.

(Charlotte Observer.)

New York, Sept. 28.-The Virginia Carolina Chemical Company, according to the Evening Sun, contemplates largely increasing its facilities and placing itself in a position to dictate prices of cotton seed and cotton seed oil. The Sun says:

The sale of $7,000,000 of bonds by gae is, who subsequently committed the Virginia Carolina Chemical Company to Hallgarten & Co., and Blair & Co., has put the company in possession of ample funds to enlarge its business and materially increase its resources in every way. This step has been contemplated since the company purchased its potash plant in Germany last summer, which has served to strengthen the company C-Neil W Campbell, Jacob Clark. immeasurably. The bonds will reimburse the company for the outlay F-J Fair. involved in this purchase and also H-Miss Kate Hart. for a number of other purchases made during the last year in the way of cotton mills and mining S - G A Seymour, L N Sesse, Mrs plants. It will also give the company all available means necessary to continue the manufacture of fertilizer and cotton seed on a large scale. An enlarged trade in fertilizer is expected by the management dur ing the current year.

The cotton seed oil business, on the contrary, will, it is believed, be less brisk. The rise in price of cotton seed promises, however, not only to curtail the sale of oil, but also to make the manufacture of oil a losing business to new outside mills as they will be compelled to buy seed at the highest prices and sell oil at the low price because the facilities of the Virginia Carolina Chemical Company will enable it to dictate prices for

RACE FOR SPEAKER WARMING UP.

S-veral Caudidates in the Field-Some thing About Them-The Clerkships. Child Labor Agitation.

[The State, 27th]

Mr. M. L. Smith, of Kershaw, was here yesterday. He declared that he is confident of election as speaker of the house of representatives. Mr. his hand, was found lying on the B. A. Morgan, of Greenville, it is stated, will not make the race, and the other gentlemen mentioned are Messrs. T. Yancey Williams, of Lancaster, R A. Cooper, of Laurens, and T. H. Rainsford, of Edgefield.

> Mr. Rainsford has been a member of the house for about ten years, Mr. Williams six years and Mesers. Cooper and Smith are comparatively young members, but have attained considerable degree of prominence.

Col. John T. Sloan, of Columbia, will preside over the senate this year. He was a member of that body eight years and brings to the office of had at least nine sticks of dynamite lieutenant governor experience, dignity and capability. Gen. R. R. McKie was about 28 years old. Hemphill will no doubt succeed himself as clerk of the senate and Col. Tom C. Hamer is confident of reelection as clerk of the house. Gen. Hemphill has been connected with the senate so long that he has be come a part of that deliberative body rather than an adjunct to it and it is thought that neither he nor Col. Hamer will have opposition. The other elective offices are sergeant-atarms, reading clerk and chaplains. The members of both branches are receiving numbers of applications for these positions.

A member of the legislature said yesterday that there will be a fine opportunity for young men to distinguish themselves at this ses sion of the legislature as there will Agent at Washington not later than 12 be important questions to be handled. One of these is the "child labor" bill. He said that he is already in receipt of literature bearing on this question. He expressed himself as of the opinion that the conditions in the cotton mills had been bettered since this agitation had commenced and he believes that this is a result of that agitation.

The premiums offered this year at the State Fair have been greatly in creased and competition will be sharp. Be sure to get a premium list at once.

Secretary Holloway informs us that the prospect for a find exhibit and large attendance is very flatter

If you have anything to exhibit at the State Fair send to Secretary Hol mium list. Do not delay to do so.

ARTHUR KIBLER, Ag't. Newberry, S. C.

[From the Chicago Tribune.] Over-crowding is the motto of the day. The factories are over crowded; the theatres are over-crowded the tenements are over-crowded. The only reason why one does not say that the street cars are over-crowded is that they are something worse. All such over-crowdings, however, are sparseness and loneliness compared with the over crowding of the Bar. In 1890 there were 58 law schools, with 6,073 students. Now, according to an estimate made by Prof. Huffcutt, of Cornell, there are 120 schools, with 14,000 students. Meanwhile the number of full fledged lawyers in the United States is said by the last census to be about 114, 000. No other profession, with the exception of teaching and of medicine, is so populous.

Select specimens of you choicest grains, vegetables, finely bred stock, including poultry, for exhibition at the State Fair. A little effort on your part will secure one or more of the handsome presents.
